📁 PROJECTS

LoadIn
I completed this project using the skills of web development .

02/2024 – 06/2024

It is mainly useful for the shipment process , whenever the shipper unloaded his goods at one place he will return back with empty load so in that case our web application will be intermediate between that shipper and the another seller who wants to send goods to same location where the shipper goes.so, it connects both of them.
